

AP U.S. Government and Politics

Summer Assignment

The AP U.S. Government and Politics summer assignment is a comprehensive guide to the United States Constitution. Your comprehension of this study guide will significantly support your understanding of content throughout the course.

Due Dates

- Completed assignment due on the first day of school Thursday August 17th, 2017
- Incomplete packets will be marked down by 15% before being graded.
- Late assignments will be marked down 10% for each day it is late.

Example: Turned in Friday 8/18, max grade 90%

Turned in Monday 8/21, max grade 80%

Turned in Tuesday 8/22, max grade 70%

This 10% deduction will continue until Thursday 8/24 at which point a zero will be given for students who fail to turn in the completed assignment.

Peer Collaboration

Students are encouraged to collaborate with their peers to complete this assignment via schoology. Go to www.schoology.com to register if you do not already have an account. Once registered use the class code below to join the course. If you do have an account than simply just add the class. Students can also find a copy of the assignment in the course resources folder. Students are expected to demonstrate professionalism and respect to their peers and follow regular school policy regarding online behavior.

Course Code: N7PCR-HTZP6

Resources

Listed at the top of the assignment are a few resources that can help you complete the packet. In addition to those refer to the course website www.goulartegovernment.com for additional resources about the course including a copy of the summer assignment under the AP Gov tab.

Grade

This assignment will account for approximately 20% of the classwork category in the AP U.S. Government and Politics course. Please refer to the course syllabus on the class website for a breakdown of category weights.